

Hi, my name is Larissa & I love design. I have at least 12 years design experience in both print and web. Love working from concept to completion. Have experience in managing design teams. Great with people. Keen eye to detail. Fun Loving. Check out more @ larissamac.com

I have always had a love on design, right from an early age. I remember doing everyone's bubble writing for their class assignments to winning the primary school drawing competition at 8 years old. And what about the time, in junior high school, where I designed and printed an A5 monthly magazine for a small group of friends.

Design to me is everywhere. Some things are design well and some things aren't. And when I see those things that just don't meet my design needs – gee my husband knows all about it.

I have designed a get deal of things in my time, from business cards, letterheads, stationery, promotional items, t-shirt designs; to corporate websites, flash e-learning training courses, multimedia presentations, billboards, bus and monorail wraps. I love it all.

My approach is very hands on, I like to either work through the design process from start to finish or if that is not possible I will always seek the end result or dig further to find its point of origin. I love being involved in the creative concept, the ideas, the what, when, where, why and hows...

I have been designing professionally for over 12 years now and have been producing websites for at least 10 years. I work with all the Adobe Creative Suite programs; cross platform, and get involved with Microsoft programs when the need arises.

But you can't put all your eggs into one basket.... my other passion is the love of the great outdoors. I was a ski instructor who travelled the world back when I was so fit it was scary! And now I have just completed a lap of our amazing country, Australia.

If you want you find out more about me, why not give me a buzz on 0435 644 234 or jump online and check out my work at larissamac.com. Don't forget to have a quick peek at my resume over the page.

Look forward to hearing from you soon.

You could either spend your time facebook stalking me, or I could kindly offer up some info about myself to you...

SENIOR WEB & GRAPHIC DESIGNER

2008 - 2011

Transmarketing, NORTH SYDNEY, NSW

As senior web and graphic designer of a fun-loving creative agency based in North Sydney, I was responsible for all aspects of design, in both print and web, website management, advertising campaigns, think-tanks and organising and liaising with a great out-going team of designers.

Senior designer is a very rewarding position; but we must remember that it is a demanding job which leads to a challenging role, where one must be committed to the task to achieve maximum results. I thoroughly enjoyed this role and will definitely be looking for these attributes in future employment opportunities.
